Job Fair 2018

The inauguration of "Padua Job Fair 2018" was done by lighting the traditional lamp by Wilfred Prakash D'Souza - Director, St. Joseph Engineering College - mangalore, along with chief guest - JCI Sen Krishna-mohan - Past Zonal president and JCI India Author; and guests of honor on the dais namely MIA TR Lobo; Fr Antony Shera - Correspondent, Padua Educational Institutions; Fr Edwin Senoza principal, padua college of commerce and management; Roshan Vinay Sankar-mayor - vice principal / Job Fair Convener; Ms Soujanya Hegde - President, JCI Mangalore - Lalbagh; Deenath D'Sa - Job fair Coordinator and placement officer and Alex Stewart President of PCFA

Addressing the gathering MIA TR Lobo said, "The first thing I am going to ask you - Is there unemployment in India? And a loud answer came from the audience saying - YES??. Unemployment exist all over the world, and even in India, and also in mangalore. It's nice to see many of you youngsters come here for the job fair. Today is a unique opportunity to form partnerships between potential employers and employees. Entering work life after completed studies is a two-way process. As job seekers, you need to make yourselves attractive to employers. But companies have to make an equal effort to attract the best students/youth/adults. Students today ask their potential employers: what can you offer? Can I fulfill my potential within your company? Can you live up to my dream?

45 companies came to recruit for the job. A total number of 730 participated in this job fair. It was a successful event.
