requested update inclusive.

- The Service shall be understood as referring to the latest version of the product launched by the LICENSER, to its immediately previous version, and in any case to those versions created during the term of the corresponding current Service Package Payment.
- Should any module be added to the basic Licenses package at a later stage, the amount invoiced for the relevant Service will be calculated based on the number of days remaining until the date, when the next Package payment is due. Likewise, said Service
- Shall remain valid until that date. From then on, the basic package Service shall be added to that of the new module for the purposes of subsequent Package service renewals.

6: Guarantee

- The LICENSER guarantees, for a period of 3 YEARS, or where appropriate for the minimum legal period established by the imperative regulations applicable in each case, that each Product shall perform substantially in accordance with its User Manual, as long as it is used in accordance with the technical and operational specifications of said User Manual.
- The SOFTWARE is delivered on an "AS IS" basis. LICENSER does not guarantee that the Product will operate without interruption or that it will meet the LICENSEE's expectations or commercial necessities. If the Product contains errors, the LICENSER will act in accordance with the provisions of the legislation applicable at each moment.
- The previous guarantee will not be applicable in the following cases:
 - When the product/s has/have not been used according to the instructions specified in the User Manual.

When the initial configuration, requirements or specifications that appear in the User Manual have been modified.

When the LICENSEE's equipment or main accessories do not work properly due to causes that cannot be attributed to the LICENSER.

When the SOFTWARE PRODUCTS have been damaged, whatever the cause, by the LICENSEE's software or hardware.

The LICENSER expressly states, and the LICENSEE accepts, that he/she will not
